ANSON RELEASED

Time Magazine correspondent Robert Anson was released last week after being held for three weeks by Communist forces in Cambodia.

The release followed efforts by the magazine's representatives and Anson's relatives and friends, who sent pleas to deposed Prince Sihanouk, the North Vietnamese embassy in Paris, the UN Secretary-General's office, and other diplomatic channels.

Quarterly Club Profit of $14,532 For Current Period Reported to Board

The first quarterly profit in several years was reported to the Club's Board of Governors last week by Treasurer Leonard Saffir.

The net profit for the quarter ending July 31 was $14,532.09, according to Saffir. The figures included such items as the extraordinary income from the $24,000 sale of the Remington painting and $11,187.30 for employee vacations, an extraordinary outgo since normally vacations would have accrued during the prior year. Banquet commissions of $948, which also should have been previously paid out, are included in the quarterly tabulations.

Even without the income from the painting, Saffir said, the Club under regular accounting procedures would have shown a profit of about $2,600.

During the quarterly period, the Club has paid off old debts of approximately $6,388, and sales taxes have been paid regularly since May 1. The OPC's agreements to pay Con Edison, the Internal Revenue Service, and Cascade Laundry are being kept. A lawsuit filed by Faber & Co., the tobacconist, has been dropped, with an agreement that the Club would operate on a COD basis and would gradually liquidate its back debt.

Saffir said that a $25,000 note with the Chase Manhattan Bank is still outstanding. The overdraft at the bank still stands at about $35,000, but Saffir said that the bank's manager is cooperating with the Club on the problem.

About 90 names still remain on the Club's dues delinquent list, the treasurer reported. The Board unanimously accepted his proposal that these members be posted and given notification that they will be expelled on Oct. 3 without further notice if payment, or an arrangement for payment, is not made.

The Board also approved appointments for several committee chairmanships. These include Hospitalized Veterans, Joseph Glynn; Placement, Mark Henahan; Regional Dinners, Myra Waldo; Credit, Jack Frummer; Budget and Finance, Leonard Saffir (acting); Annual Awards Dinner, Stephen Korsen; and Sports Events, William Goodrich.

CONSIDINE TOASTS TOOTS IN CAPITAL

By JESSIE STEARNS

WASHINGTON — Basil "Bud" R. Littin, former PR man for Continental Oil in Washington and New York City, is back in town as environmental public relations specialist with Burson-Marsteller.

Bob Considine, author of "Toots," helped roast and toast Toots Shor at a Touchdown Club luncheon. The former two-term OPC president said "it is a tribute to our great democracy that Toots and Averell Harriman are great friends. It couldn't happen anywhere else."

John Charles Daly stated "Toots looks like a flat tire on a moving van."

Harriman remarked, "he's let every single one of the last seven presidents into his 'dump.'"

AGNEW CANCELS TALK

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has cancelled his scheduled OPC appearance next Tuesday because of "exhaustion" following his five-nation Asian tour.

The OPC platform had been sought for the vice president through White House Presidential aide William Safire, a Club member. It was to have been a "major policy address," according to Safire.

A CLOSING AND A DEADLINE

The Clubhouse will be closed for the Labor Day weekend, to reopen on Tuesday morning.

Deadline for the next issue of the Bulletin is noon Monday, Sept. 14.

Send Pleas for Newsmen To Indo-China Leaders

By AL KAFF

TOKYO — The Foreign Correspondents Club of Japan has sent cables to four governments in Indochina requesting the swift return of missing newsmen.

Identical cables were sent Aug. 11 to Prime Minister Pham Van Dong in Hanoi, President Nguyen Van Thieu in Saigon, General Lon Nol in Phnom Penh and Prince Norodom Sihanouk in Peking.

The Club approved the cables at a general membership meeting, noting that two of its own members were missing in Cambodia. Club members come from East and West Europe, North America and Asia.

When the cables were sent, 24 foreign newsmen were missing in Cambodia. Text of the cable:

"The Foreign Correspondents Club of Japan in general membership meeting in Tokyo on the 3rd of August 1970 notes that the Club reported in June 1970 that two of its members, Kojiro Sakai and Tomoharu Ishii of Columbia Broadcasting System, were among the newsmen missing in Indochina while in the performance of their professional their professional duties as non-combatants.

"By unanimous resolution, the Club requests that information regarding these missing newsmen be made available and that these newsmen be allowed to return immediately to their work and to their families for humanitarian reasons.

"The Club asks all persons and officials involved to assure the safety and swift return of newsmen missing in Indochina."

Tues., Sept. 8 - Luncheon, with Vice President Spiro T. Agnew in a major policy address. Cancelled.

Berlin Reunion

Fri., Sept. 25 - Berlin Correspondents Reunion. Cocktails, 6:30 p.m., dinner 7:30 p.m. $8.50.

Correspondents whose Berlin-dated stories reported German history-in-the-making, before and after World War II, will get together at the OPC for their first reunion in 12 years.

Back in 1958, the OPC Reunion Committee staged a Berlin Night with a panel of byliners who had helped make history in the German capital - Louis Lochner, Otto Tolischus, Bill Shirer, Sigrid Schultz, Quentin Reynolds, Dick Hottelet, Vic Bernstein, Frederick Kuh, Pierre Huss and Wes Gallagher. Reynolds, Tolischus and Huss are dead. However, many of the others are expected to be back on Sept. 25 to trade stories about their days in Berlin.

Because many addresses change in the course of 12 years, the Reunion Committee asks the assistance of CPC members in relaying news of the Berlin Night to all news people who were once stationed there. All OPC members welcome.
